1. Call to Order and Chair’s Remarks
Board Chair Claudia Puig convened the meeting of the Florida International University Board of Trustees at 2:26 p.m. on Thursday, December 5, 2019, at the FIU, Modesto A. Maidique Campus, Graham Center Ballrooms.

General Counsel Carlos B. Castillo conducted roll call of the Florida International University Board of Trustees and verified a quorum. Present were Claudia Puig, Board Chair; Jose J. Armas, Board Vice Chair; Cesar L. Alvarez; Leonard Boord; Dean C. Colson; Gerald C. Grant, Jr.; Michael G. Joseph; Natasha Lowell; Justo L. Pozo; Joerg Reinhold; Sabrina L. Rosell; Marc D. Sarnoff; and Roger Tovar.

Chair Puig welcomed all Trustees and University faculty and staff to the meeting. Chair Puig indicated that the Sixth Amendment to the President’s Employment Agreement has been executed and explained that in addition to the terms specifically approved by the Board of Trustees, the sixth amendment contains language required by the Florida Board of Governors (BOG) pertaining to a President’s cooperation with investigations post-term, as well as language required by the NCAA. Chair Puig thanked President Rosenberg for his service to the University.

Chair Puig noted that the BOG reappointed Trustee Natasha Lowell and appointed Ambassador Donna Hrinak, who succeeds Trustee Justo L. Pozo, to the FIU Board of Trustees for five-year terms beginning January 6, 2020. On behalf of the Board, Chair Puig presented Trustee Pozo with a plaque in recognition of his leadership and service.

2. Public Appearances
There were no public appearances.

3. Foundation Report
Foundation Board of Directors Chair Richard Brilliant presented the Foundation Report, reporting that the Next Horizon Campaign has raised $528M to-date towards the $750M goal and that, as of September 30, 2019, the Foundation’s total investment portfolio totaled approximately $301.8M. He described recent giving, namely, an anonymous $3M gift in support of FIU undergraduate scholarships, $2.5M from Chad Moss in support of the FIU Moss School of Construction, Infrastructure and Sustainability, and $1M from Patricia Bradley in support of the Office of Student Access and Success and the Frost Museum. Chair Brilliant pointed out that the University broke ground on the second phase of the Green School building. He recognized the Deloitte Foundation-Sabater, adding that FIU Business students selected as Deloitte Foundation-Sabater Scholars will receive full tuition scholarships as well as other opportunities exclusive to them.

In terms of campaign messaging, Senior Vice President of University Advancement Howard R. Lipman noted that while the primary messaging in the initial phase was focused on awareness, the next phase would create a connection to fundraising and is a call-to-action.

4. President’s Report
University President Mark B. Rosenberg recognized Trustee Pozo and thanked him for his service and his involvement with the University. President Rosenberg reported that the football team made history when FIU claimed its first victory over UM, adding that the Panthers became bowl-eligible for the third year in a row.

In terms of high-profile visits, events, and recognitions, President Rosenberg indicated that FIU welcomed the President of Colombia Ivan Duque and presented him with the “FIU Medallion of Courage”. President Rosenberg added that Lieutenant Governor Jeanette Nuñez and School Board member Susie V. Castillo were joined by key leaders and renowned experts for a discussion panel at FIU that brought awareness to the issue of domestic violence, with a focus on prevention, intervention, and education. He explained that Mr. Garrett Smithley ran his final race of the 2019 NASCAR Xfinity Series in a car featuring FIU branding, adding that this brought the University unparallel exposure. President Rosenberg stated that in its piece about Art Basel, The New York Times said that “two small institutions have consistently been punching above their weight: The Jewish Museum of Florida-FIU and The Wolfsonian-FIU.” President Rosenberg further stated that FIU received the Gold Level of APLU’s 2019 Institutional Award for Global Learning, Research & Engagement, which recognizes institutions that have excelled in internationalization. He reported that the University was awarded $1.25M to bring the United States Department of Commerce’s National Institute for Cybersecurity Education Annual Conferences to FIU from 2018 to 2022.

In terms of research news, President Rosenberg reported that the Robert Stempel College of Public Health and Social Work received $6.6M to study Parkinson’s disease. He indicated that the Air Force Office of Scientific Research awarded FIU an additional $4.82M to expand its groundbreaking research on origami antennas. He pointed out that the United States Agency for International Development, Office of U.S. Foreign Disaster Assistance awarded a $4.2M, three-year cooperative agreement to the FIU Extreme Events Institute Disaster Risk and Resilience in the Americas program. He stated that Dean of the Robert Stempel College of Public Health and Social Work Tomás R. Guilarte, and a team of researchers from the Department of Environmental Health Sciences have been awarded a $2.31M grant by the National Institutes of Health to study proteins in the brain and how their interactions may lead to brain inflammation.

President Rosenberg reported on faculty and student news, noting that select individuals were recognized with an award for significant achievements in their scholarly pursuits during the 2019 Faculty Convocation and Awards Ceremony. He stated that the FIU Model UN team has earned the No. 1 team ranking for the first time in the program’s 31-year history. He indicated that in preparation for the 2020 NFL Super Bowl, FIU By Design + CARTA's Robotics and Digital Fabrication Lab was approached by the Miami-Dade Police Department's Rapid Deployment Force to create a large-scale 3D printed model of the Hard Rock Stadium for desk-top training scenarios. He pointed out that Jennifer Knight, a first-year medical student at the Herbert Wertheim College of Medicine (HWCOM) is HWCOM’s first recipient of the National Health Service Corps Scholarship awarded by the United States Department of Health and Human Services.

President Rosenberg reported on the recent graduation of Cohort II in FIU’s workforce development program, Urban Potential Laboratories. He explained that through a connection made by Foundation Board of Directors member, Adalio Sanchez, FIU and MITRE, a not-for-profit corporation, have entered into a strategic partnership. President Rosenberg also referred to FIU’s Educational Leadership Enhancement Program (ELEP), adding that the program is designed to prepare mid-level women and minorities for advancement to senior-level administrative positions in higher education. He pointed out that the University community will come together to celebrate student achievement at the upcoming commencement ceremonies.

5. Action Items – Consent Agenda
Chair Puig explained that the Consent Agenda was amended to include a new business item reviewed by the Finance and Facilities Committee that related to the pending funding of the FIU Advancement budget request.
